 United States District Court
 For the Southern District of New York

Re: Joan C. Lipin v. Ulf Bergquist, 07 Civ. 7833 (RJH)

Dear Judge Holwell:

The purpose of this letter is to request an adjustment of time within which to file my reply papers to defendants' responses to plaintiff's motion dated March 29, 2008.

This request is made necessary by defendants' late responses that were not received by plaintiff until Friday, April 18, 2008.

Defendants received plaintiff's motion on April 2, 2008, by Federal Express.

Plaintiff served and filed her motion on April 1, 2008, and the opposition papers were due by April 12, 2008, as set forth in the Notice of Motion which states:

PLEASE TAKE FURTHER NOTICE that, in accordance with Local Civil Rule 6.1(b)(2) of the Rules of the Court, any opposing affidavits and answering memoranda are required to be served by delivery to the address below on or before ten (10) business days after receipt of the aforesaid papers in support of this motion.

The late papers of defendants were received by the undersigned the day before Passover.

Passover is the biblical festival that celebrates the triumph of the Jewish people over their adversaries' conspiratorial scheme to annihilate them by genocide.

The undersigned observes the Passover Seder that begins today, April 19, 2008. Defendants' late papers therefore interfere with my Passover observances and my ability to prepare adequate responses before the return date on April 23, 2008.

This pro se plaintiff therefore respectfully requests a one week adjustment of time, to April 28, 2008, within which to file her reply papers, and a corresponding adjustment of time for a return date of April 30, 2008, or at some other date that the Court may specify.

There has been no previous request for this adjustment of time.

Please file my reply papers Respectfully submitted, by 4/28/08. The Court will advise the parties if it concludes that oral argument would be useful.
